

258

rise but set-tled right on us. From then on, no-thing could be seen ver-y plain.

Pno.

261

The sol-diers were rush-ing a-round shoot-ing all of us they could see to shoot.

Pno.

263

Part 9

My mo-ther was cry-ing and try-ing to pro-tect our small fam - 'ly. I was just a lit-tle boy. A sol-dier came to where we were hid-ing and Pno.

Pno.

265

268

shot my mo-ther, bab - y bro-ther and I as my mo-ther plead-ed for our lives.

Pno.

272

Part 3

My grand - fa - ther was

I lay in the snow for ho - urs.

Pno.

275

shot in the back, it went through his lung. He was a-gain shot in the Pno.

278

right calf and in the hip. He was cough-ing blood, he had lost a lot of blood. He could hear some - one sing-ing a death song.

Pno.

280

Pno.

283

When - e-ver some-one moved, the sol-diers shot them.

Part 5

I start-ed to the creek and on the Pno.

286

8 way I saw a great num - ber of men, wo - men and child - ren, dead or wound - ed and

Pno.

289

8 bleed - ing I went on past them down in - to the creek as I saw a few o - thers

Pno.

292

Part 3

8 The wo - men start - ed to run toward the run - ning there to get pro - tec - tion.

Pno.

297

west, but the sol-diers from both sides shot them. My hus-band was killed there and my lit-tle girl, and a lit-tle bab-y boy on my back. Part 8

Pno.

300

In this ra -

Pno.

305

vine where we took re-fuge, most of them were wo-men and child-ren... a - bove them the Pno.

308

Pno.

311

Part 7

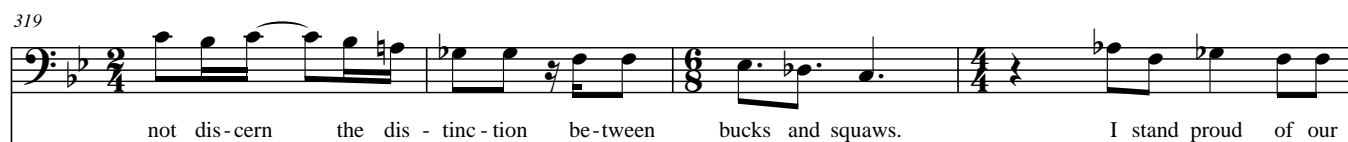

Pno.

315

Pno.

319

Pno.