

226

go-vern-ment to ne-go-ti-ate in good faith, when they don't know what we want?

226 Part 10

Well I say,

Pno.

229 $\text{♩} = 84$ Part 4

Why is it so we should all be spokes-men.

229

Pno.

rit.

leg.

232

hard? It was so clear on that first day, and so beau-ti-ful. We had come to -

232

Pno.

sim.

235

ge-ther as In-dians of All Tribes and we felt a one-ness that had nev-er ex-ist-ed be - fore. Why is it so hard? Is it be-cause we were nev-er one tribe be-fore? Be-cause we lived on those sep'-rate res - er-va-tions as peo-ple tried to take the In-dian out of us. Why is it so hard? Is it be-cause some of us who are old want to keep the few things we've got-ten. While some of us who are young want to put all we have at risk for this new free-dom. Why is it so hard? Is it be-cause we real-ly can't go back to be-ing In - dians a-gain? Is that lost to us for - ev-er? Is the onl-y way left for us to go for-ward in the white world? Why is it so

Pno.

238

Pno.

241

Pno.

245

Pno.

248

Pno.

252

Pno.

258

Pno.

265

Pno.

And. ————— \wedge sim.

hard? It was so clear on that first day, and so beau-ti-ful. We had come to -

Pno.

geth-er as In-dians of All Tribes and we felt a one-ness that had nev-er ex-ist-ed - be -

Pno.

LP: As time passed, the island began to attract a completely different type of person. Many of the new ones came without any purpose. Even worse were those that came with a darker purpose, like the group of thugs who claimed that they came to provide security. They called themselves the Thunderbirds, but instead of making the island safe, they sold drugs and violently dealt with anyone who opposed them. They began to control some members of the council through bribes and fear.

rit.

♩ = 76

fore. Can we find it a-gain?

Pno.

♩ = 52

Pno.